

Manchester Public Schools

What's Today's News?

A successful Parent Math Night was held at Bowers School...

A successful Parent Math Night was held on April 6 at Bowers School. Parents who attended are pictured learning from teachers across the grades 2-5.

Colleen Litwin, numeracy coach, coordinated the evening which began with informing parents about the shifts in math instruction followed by parents participating in number talks and math center activities similar to what their children experience in school during their math workshop block.

